

Rural Health CONNECT

Speak to a psychologist over telehealth (video call) or over the phone from wherever you are.

We ensure bulk billing is accessible to anyone who needs it.

Our priority is matching people to the right psychologist. We work with a large number of psychologists, with focus areas including:

- Trauma
- Eating disorders
- Perinatal and parenting
- Aboriginal
- LGBTIQ
- Psychologists with a farming background
- Addiction
- Child and adolescent
- Bushfire recovery
- NDIS
- Anxiety and depression

If you require support for anything not on this list please talk to us

To book, please ask your GP to fax a referral to "Rural Health Connect" and your mental health care plan to fax: 07 4573 1100. Upon receiving your referral we will call and assist you to get booked in.

OR

If you already have a mental health care plan, your mental health was impacted by the bushfires or want to pay the full fee, head straight to www.ruralhealthconnect.com.au and sign up.

We are here to help. Please call 0427 692 377 or email info@ruralhealthconnect.com.au for any assistance.

Rural Health Connect is a social enterprise committed to improving access to psychologists in rural Australia, as well as for anyone who is disadvantaged.
